SERIES NOTES

We regret to inform you that we will be putting the translation of this series on hold.

We picked this up on a whim, but given the amount of editing it demands, it isn't fair to the three other series we also just picked up for this series to push the others behind (Fujimi Lovers, Totsukuni no Shoujo, and The Blue Eye of Horus.)

Seeing as it may take a while for us to finish or get up to date with the above series, we wholly support any translation group that wants to do this series.
